| Backlog needs to be implemented in the core (probably not per-buffer?), and the clients need to be synced appropriately. |          |                        |           |

History

#1 - 05/15/2007 12:02 AM - Sputnik

DB-based backlog added and working. We will later add more database backends and of course also some enhancements.
