Hmm... View -> [X] Chat Monitor is not sufficient?

Not in my case, no. I knew about the Chat Monitor settings section and went there to look for it. I agree that's not unreasonable, but it seems odd to me not to be able to enable a feature from it's own settings.

Hmm, not very easy to do technically (the dock widget settings are independent from our own), but I guess we can look into that and see how to do this sensibly.
